

Feodora
+ Gino

Schnecki

Feodora

+

Gino

Author: Meggie Berns
Illustration/Cover design: Meggie Berns
Graphic additions: Freepik
Typesetting and layout: Meggie Berns
Dinosaur characters: based on a template by Jenny Kurz
Printing: GRASPO CZ, 763 02 Zlín
Translation: Kai C. Guillaume

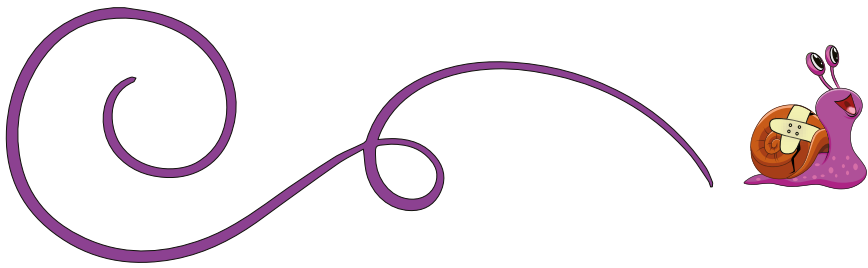

© Dino Fino Publishing
Dino Fino GmbH, Bachackerweg, 45772 Marl
All rights reserved
www.dino-fino.de

The video of the picture book and the audio play can be found at:

www.dino-fino.de

Snaily

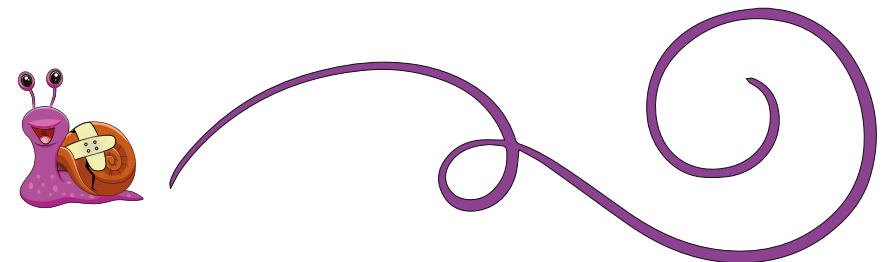

School is out.

It's a beautiful day.

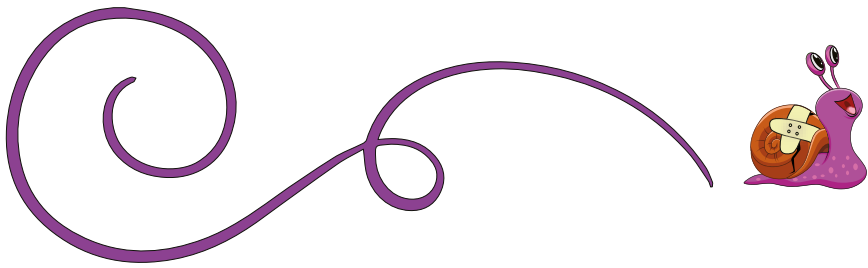

Feodora and Gino want to play at the playground today.

They wave goodbye to Ben, the playground supervisor.

Then they quickly set off.

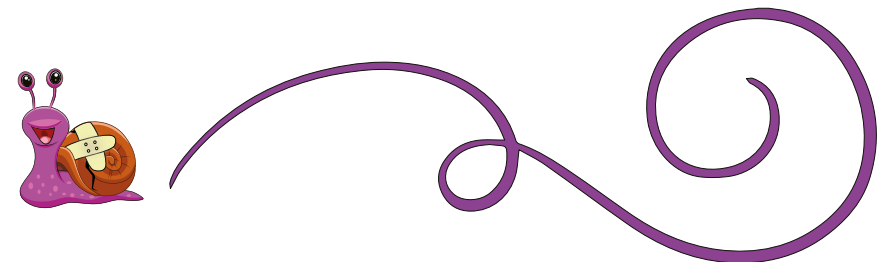

They walk past the ice cream shop from Gino's mummy and daddy.

They go inside and give them their school bags.

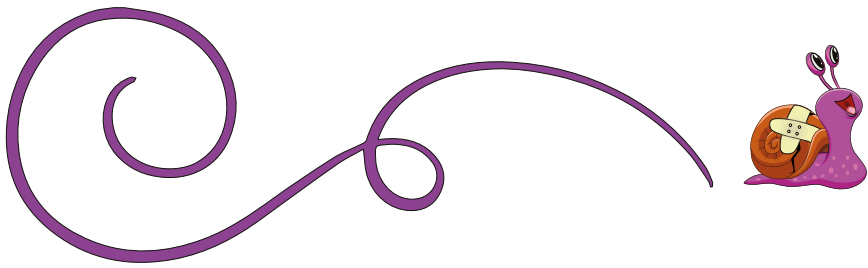

Mummy and Daddy Manzetti say hello to the children.

Feodora and Gino get a big ice cream.

They are very happy and walk to the playground.

They are at the playground now and have the whole place to themselves.

That is great!

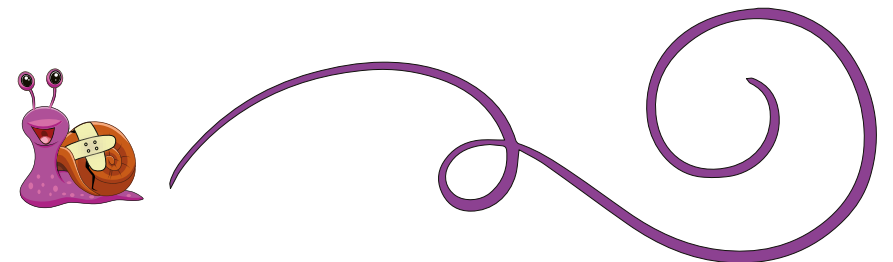

They want to play pirates.

They eat up their ice cream quickly.

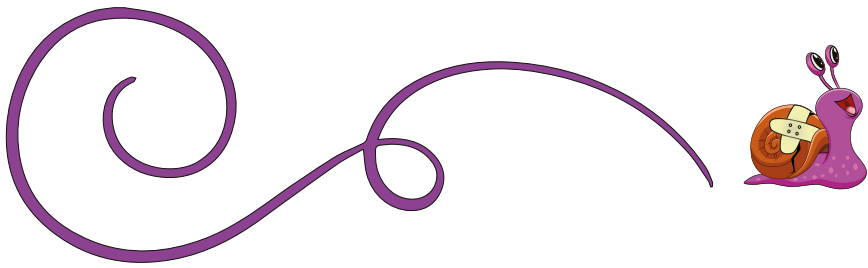

Then they go onto the pirate ship.

Gino is always the captain.

He loves pirates!

Gino is a great climber.

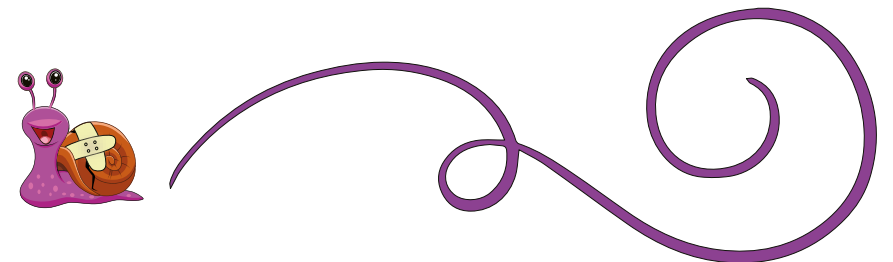

He climbs all the way up to the lookout.

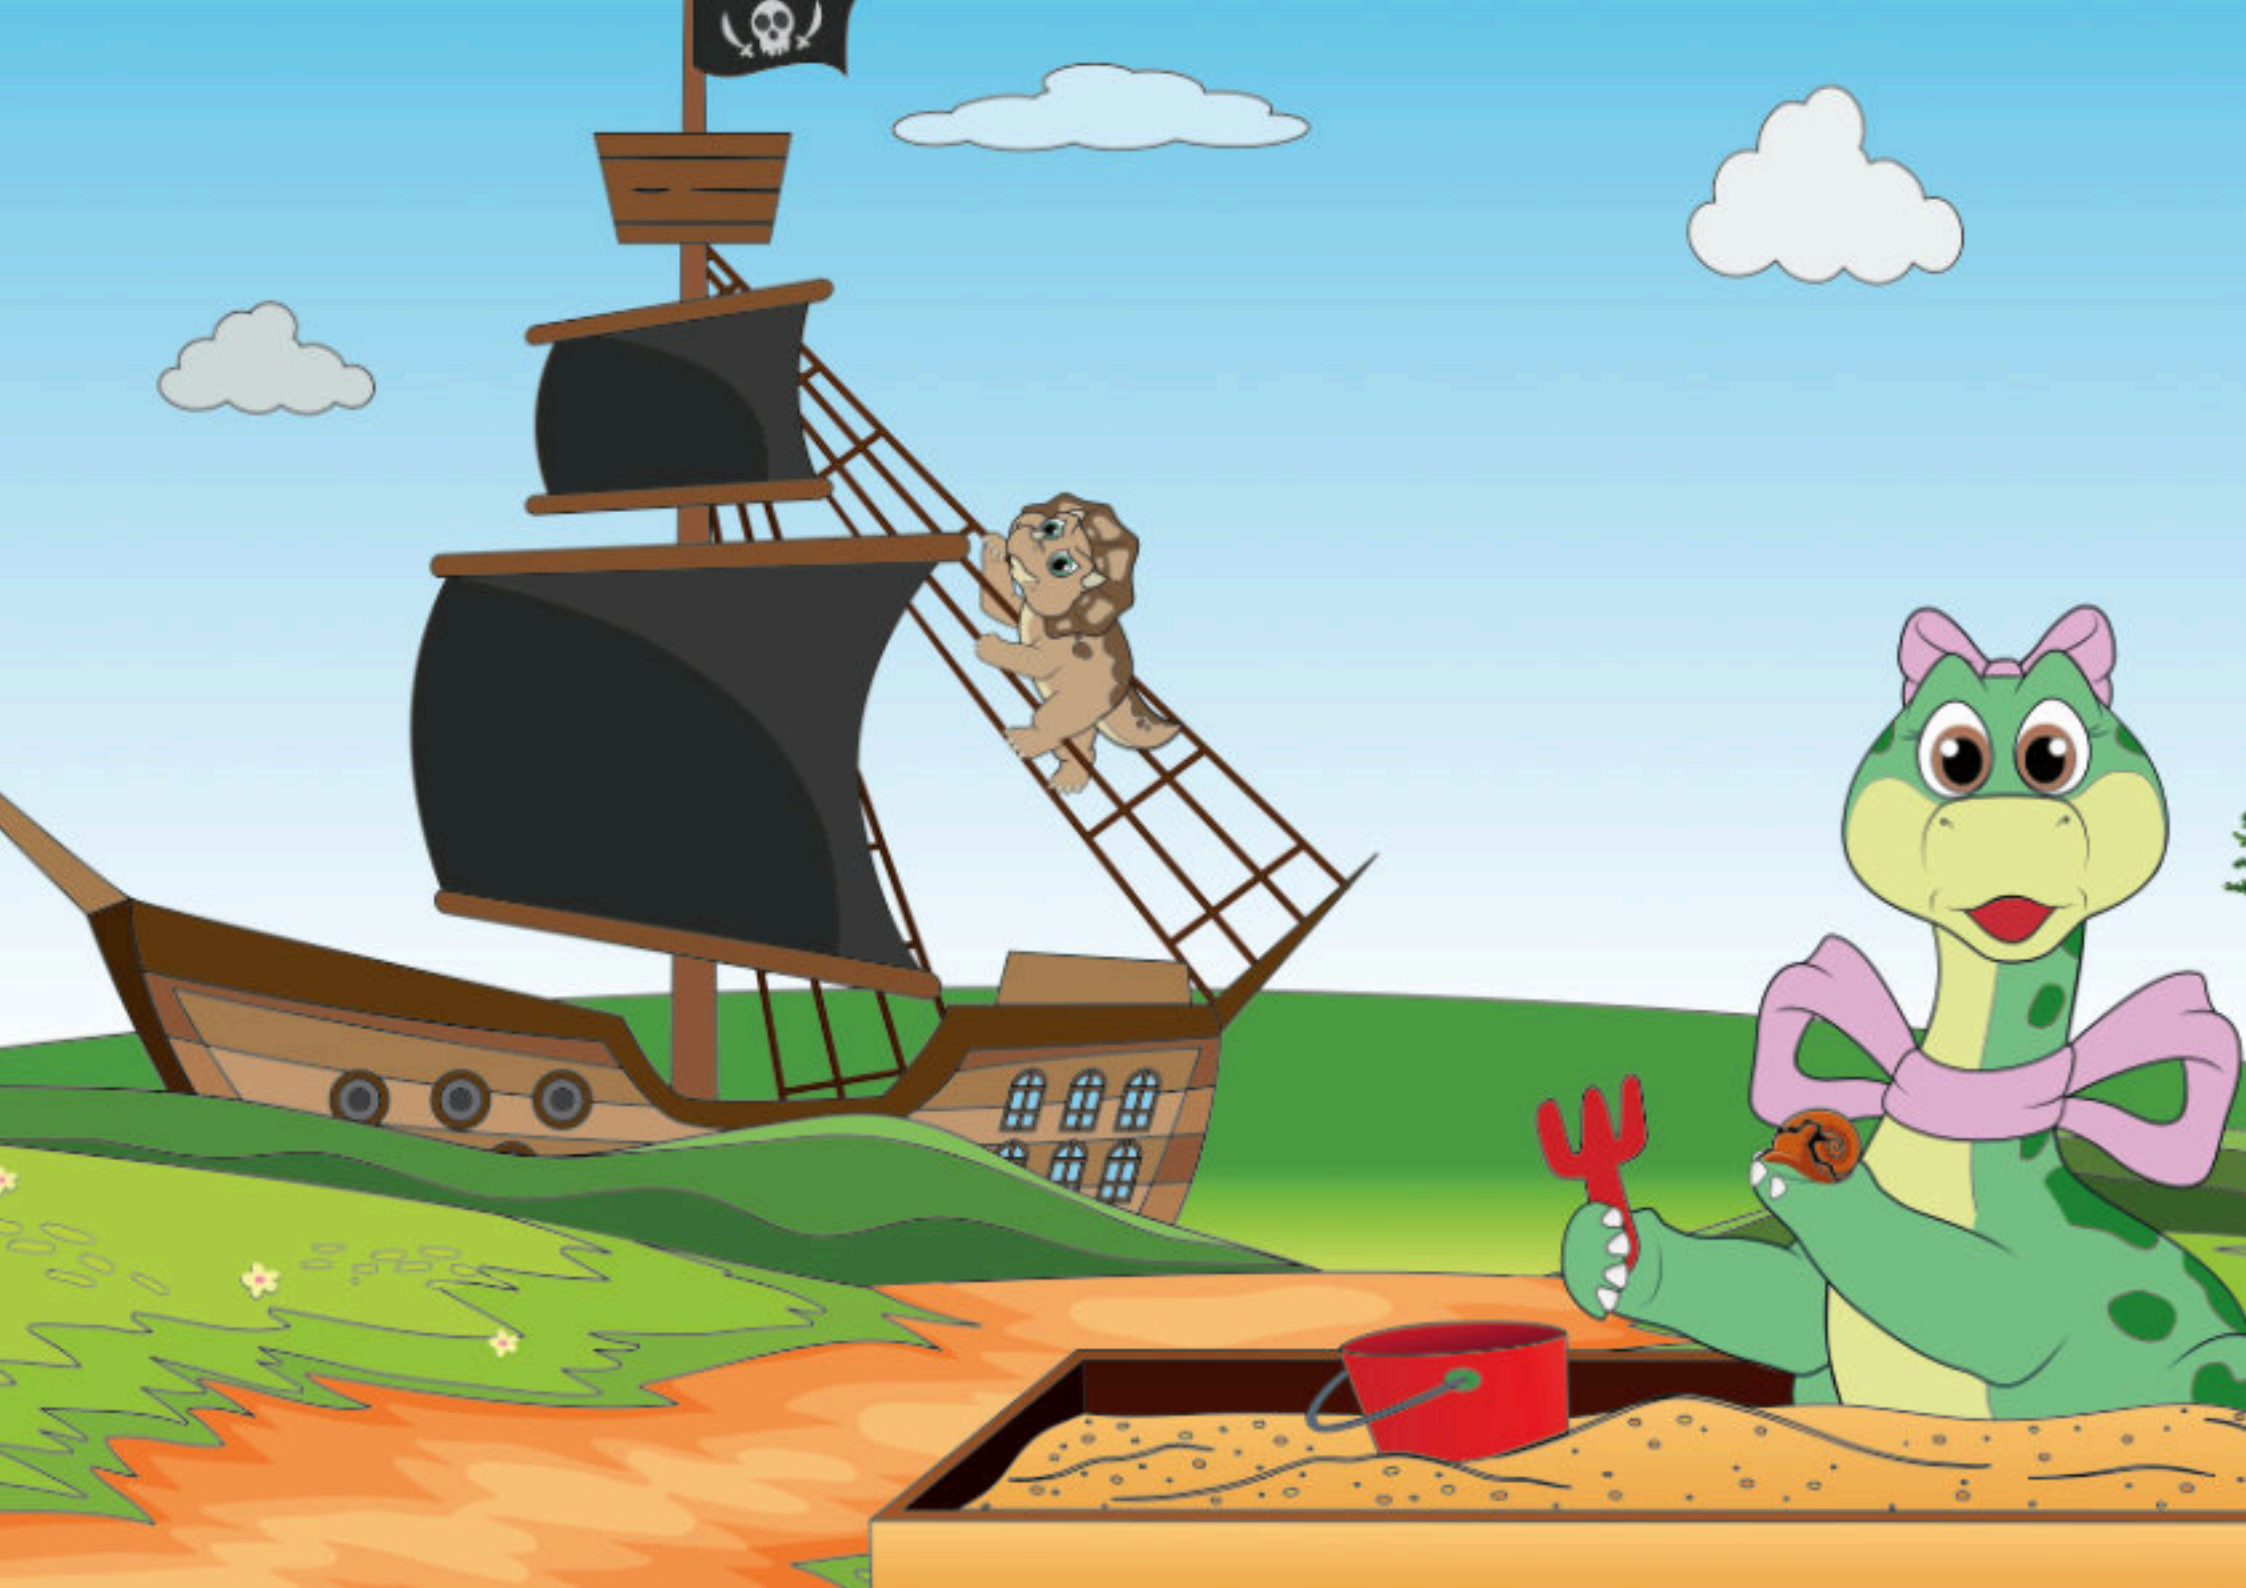

From there, he looks for a secret island they can find.

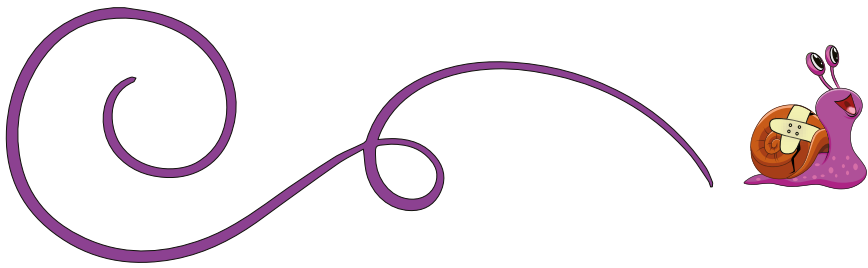

Feodora gets off the ship and digs in the sand for treasure.

She digs and digs very deep.

And then – oh! She has found something!

Feodora looks closely at the treasure.

She calls Gino to come and see.

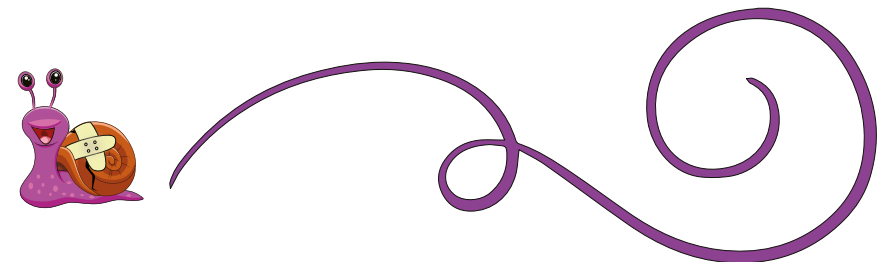

Gino runs over quickly.

She holds the thing right under his nose.

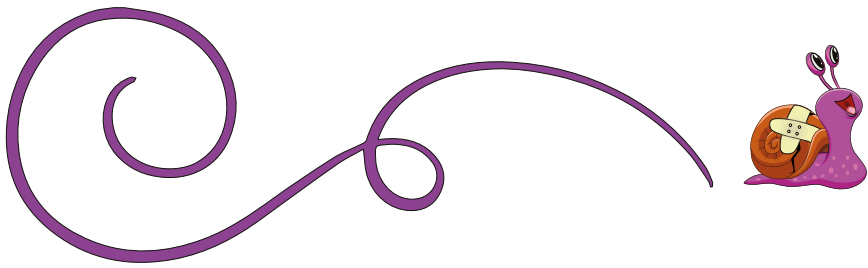

He doesn't know what it is either.

Feodora thinks: Maybe it is a piece of jewellery?

It is definitely a very special find!

Oh! Suddenly! Something is moving!

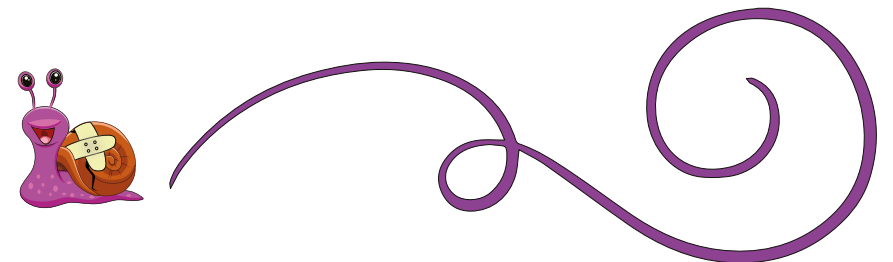

Feodora feels a tickle on her hand.

She says to Gino, "That feels really strange!"

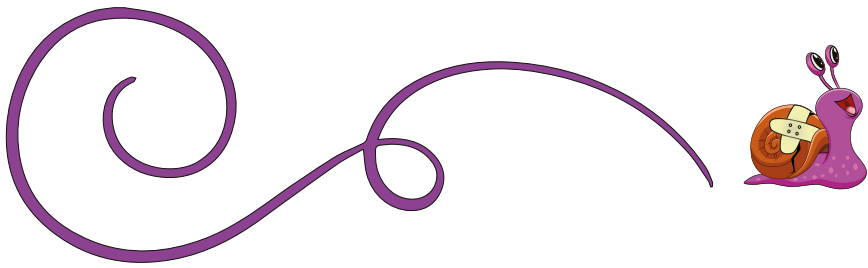

Gino leans in, very curious.

Suddenly, something pops out of the little lump!

Gino jumps back and asks, "What is that?"

Gino's legs feel like jelly.
That always happens when he gets scared.
He turns pale and rolls his eyes.
Feodora knows this already.
Suddenly, Feodora understands what it is.
She shouts happily, "It's a snail!"
Gino hears her voice and feels better.
Now they can see the little creature more clearly.

